Leading Lebanon church relocating to interstate *-Pellham Phillips selected as architect-

(Springfield, MO) Larry Phillips, President of Pellham Phillips Architects and Engineers, today revealed the design for the new campus for First Assembly of God in Lebanon. Located on Interstate 44, the new campus will be one of the largest churches in Missouri with frontage on the interstate.

Located on 25 acres along the interstate, this project is of contemporary design and will include a 1,140 seat sanctuary, education space, an office suite, nursery, and youth activity building. The first phase, including the worship center, nursery, education space, and offices will cover approximately 16,000 square feet.
