McDonald County R-1 Selects Architect -Pellham Phillips set to design new cafeteria-

(Springfield, MO) After interviewing two architectural firms, the McDonald County R-1 School Board of Education voted unanimously to hire Pellham Phillips Architect & Engineers as their architect for upcoming projects. Pellham Phillips has been given the responsibility to plan and design the renovation and expansion of the high school. The project includes enlarging the cafeteria, adding offices, expanding the library, and creating a secure entrance to the high school.

Pellham Phillips Architects and Engineers have designed many of the region's landmarks. In addition to Hammons Field in Springfield, they designed the campus of Ozarks Technical Community College, Chateau on the Lake, and Juanita K. Hammons Hall for the Performing Arts.
